Raffle tickets can only be purchased at participating locations where Rafflebox Technologies' kiosks are located.

The ticket-purchaser is solely responsible for ensuring that the ticket purchased is as requested. Ajax Pickering Hospital Foundation assumes no responsibility for any disparities and shall rely solely on the information recorded in the ERS or ticket for determining how prizes will be awarded.

Each ticket-purchaser is deemed to hold a valid ticket for the electronic raffle game for the designated draw date subscribed with the relevant information recorded in the ERS, including the raffle numbers, and draw date, and draw time. If such ticket is a winning ticket, such ticket-purchaser is deemed to produce a claim within 6-months following the relevant draw date.

Tickets will be sold for seven (7) days prior to each draw and starting immediately after the previous draw. Ticket sales will cease immediately before the draw. Draw will be conducted at 22:00 hours Eastern Time on the draw date.

Each draw for the raffle lottery scheme will be conducted on Friday of the seven-day draw-cycle. The number drawn is referred to as the “winning number”.

Refunds

Except as set out in these Game Rules, all purchases are final. No refunds are permitted.

In the unlikely event that a draw is postponed due to technical difficulty, power interruption, emergency, or other unforeseen event, the Ajax Pickering Hospital Foundation will conduct the draw and announce the winner at the earliest possible opportunity after the situation has been remedied.

In the event of a conflict between the information printed by the ERS and contained on the ticket, the Game Rules for the 50/50 Electronic Raffle, or Regulations shall be resolved by the priority as follows: Information recorded in the ERS, Regulations, these Rules, the ticket.
